About the College

Sree Abiraami Arts and Science College for Women (SAWC), established in 2016, aims to "Empower Women through Quality Education." Managed by Sree Abiraami Educational and Charitable Trust, Gudiyattam, the college is approved by the Government of Tamil Nadu and affiliated to Thiruvalluvar University, Vellore. Located at Keelalathur Village on the Gudiyattam-Katpadi Main Road, the college provides a serene and green campus with modern infrastructure, ICT-enabled classrooms, laboratories, computer lab, digital library, 24x7 Wi-Fi and hygienic canteen and the college ensures convenient transportation for students. It offers 9 UG and 3 PG programmes and regularly conducts seminars, guest lectures, conferences, symposiums and other academic activities to promote quality education and holistic development.

About the Department

The Department of English was established in the year 2016. In view of the growing demand for English Language and Literature, M.A. English was introduced in the department during the academic year 2019-2020. The department has a Literary Association to enrich the academic activities and language proficiency of the students. It also ensures that students develop the capacity to access a wide range of literary forms and fosters their growth by providing exposure to various career opportunities.

About the Conference

Script to Screen: The Convergence of Language, Literature and Technology explores the transformative journey of stories from the written word to the digital screen. The conference brings together language, literature, cinema, and emerging technologies to examine new forms of storytelling and interpretation. It highlights how technology reshapes literary expression, creativity, readership, and visual narratives. The platform encourages scholars, researchers, teachers, and students to share innovative perspectives across disciplines. Ultimately, it celebrates the evolving dialogue between the timeless power of literature and the limitless possibilities of technology.
